SECTION B (40 MARKS)

51. Read the story below and answer the questions that following full sentences.

I will never forget the things I liked during my childhood. When I was in Primary One, I liked skipping the rope. I played hide and seek in Primary Two. In Primary Three, I liked racing with toy cars. I also made balls from banana fibres with my young sister, Sarah.

Now in Primary Four, I like reading story books and making summaries. I like stories because they are interesting and educative. I always borrow books from the school Librarian, Mr. Adima. Mr. Adima lends me those story books every week. But when I lose one, he asks me to pay Shs. 10,000 for replacement. My father always advises me to be responsible enough.

I also like watching Akilli Cartoons that are telecast on Nation Television on Saturdays. These cartoons remind me of the sounds Madam Juliet taught me when I was in Nursery. I also help mother with house work during the weekends.
