MY FIRST DAY AT THE WELL
My first day at the well is a day I will always remember. We were in the village. We had gone to visit our grandparents in Nimule Village. On this day, after having lunch, my cousin Teddy, got a jerrycan and said that we should go and fetch water at the well. On our way, some girls joined us.

They were Teddy's friends. One was Carol and the other was Amina. We walked as they told me stories about their village. I also told them about our town. I told them about the taps where we get water. I also told them about the days when there is no water in all the taps in the town.

They laughed about this. They said that the well never went dry. Soon, we reached the well. I was told to be careful as I draw the water so as not to fall in the well. We filled all our jerrycans and went back home happily. I promised to go back to the well the next day.
